Hi Trish

My apologies in this not making it to you last night.

We're running on fumes right now and something distributions are missed (sorry you were one of them).

The draft plan is below. There were some major structural changes made early last night that require us to redraft to add more content. So what you see is very high level and the content will be filled today. The text below identifies some of the things that will be further address. At the bottom there is an attachment with the current draft.

If you have questions, ask....we have most of the content in our heads, we just need to transcribe it to paper.

K

Insp Lucas and S/Sgt Kennedy,

Please find attached the most recent draft for your review. Please note the items in yellow on the draft are still under construction and will be completed tomorrow, in addition to the items listed below.

- Please add Supt Rheaume as the overall approving authority
- Situation – Eleven convoys now
- Intel – no known incidents of violence to date with this Convoy (to be verified)
- OPP – managing outlying communities in addition to the highways (Arnprior, etc...)
- Commanders Intent (use mission statement again)
- Towed Vehicles – Site Commander or Incident Commander. Towing may be provided by the city (TBD)
- Contingency Plans – replace Patrol Inspector with Command Inspector & Event Manager with Incident Commander
- 5.5 OPS Command Center – need to validate that they have overall operational command of the city with the NCRCC Incident Command managing the event. NCRCC IC reports to the Command Center
- Arrest Procedures – Do we actually have a Hand Off Team? May need to address Mass Arrest as a contingency plan – only to identify available options to facilitate

- Appendix A – Isabelle Lemieux is in twoce. She will be the afternoon Incident Commander. On site CIC during the day will be MA Sheehy *TBC) and Afternoon will be Debbie Palmer; Andy Moore will not be at the NCRCC
- We need a lot more meat and potatoes into our Execution to outline the general strategies (the what and the how)
